About People

The Premier (Mr. J. B. Hayes) left Hobart by the mail train last night for the north, and returns to the capital on Tuesday.

Vathers Hogan and Goodman, Ms.S.H., of Sydney, are on a holiday visit to Launceston. Father Goodman is wellknown on the mainland and Tasmania as an eloquent speaker.

The Premier in in receipt of a communication notifying that Mr. h. J. Hainy has assumed the office of Consul-General for Australia of the Ozecho-Slovak nepublic, and will have his headounrters in Sydney.

The Director of Education (Mr. G. V. Brooks) transacted departmental business at the Public Buildings, Laurceston, yesterday. He returns to Ho-bart to-day.

A message from Washington states that President Harding has been ill for several days from a slight attack of grippe. His physician has ordered him to bed, and all the President's engagements have been cancelled for the remainder of the week.

The members of the Longford Football Cub have presented their popu-lar vice-captain (Mr. Gorden Stokes) ball Cub have presented their popular vice-captain (Mr. Gordan Stokes) with a handsome silver ten service, accompanied by their best wishes for a happy wedded life. Mr. Stokes who is the eldest son of the Warden of Longford, was married on Wednesday at St. John's Church, Launceston, to Miss Audrey Weiley. They are spending their honeymoon in Hobart.

A well-known mining identity, Mr. William Sussell Tregurtha, died at his residence, -10 Cameron-street, Launceston, yesterday, in his eightieth year. He was the second son of the late Captain S. P. Tregurtha, and became famous as one of the founders of the lew Chum sold miss at Laftor. The mine paid several dividends, and subsequently he came to Launceston and retired. When the New Chum closed down he became a stock broker, and was elected a member of the Stock Exchange in 1890. In recognition of his services to the archange and mains in general, he was made a life member. The deceased leaves a widow, who was formerly Miss Emily Rosins Cape. A brother, Mr. Charles Tregurtha, who also was well known on the Leftroy field, survives him. Out of respect to Mr. Tregurtha, who also was well known on the Leftroy field, survives him. Out of respect to Mr. Tregurtha, who also was well known on the Leftroy field, survives him. Out of respect to Mr. Tregurtha's death, the Launceston Stock Exchange adjourned at its afternoon seatern peterday. The funeral will leave his late residence at 5 o'clock this afternoon for Carr Villa Cometery.